QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER OF TABITHA MINISTRY
SUMMER 2019

Tabitha's Furniture Nook Open

This year, Tabitha Ministry launched Tabitha's Furniture Nook two doors down from its clothing thrift store, Tabitha's Closet. Like Tabitha's Closet, all items are donated from members of the community and sold at thrift shop rates, typically at 90% off retail price. While most of the donated furniture is gently used, Tabitha's Furniture Nook also frequently receives donated furniture that is brand new, such as 8 sectional couches that were donated new from a furniture distributor.

Proceeds from sales through Tabitha's Closet and Tabitha's Furniture Nook generate the funding needed to support all out-of-pocket expenses for six residents in the Tabitha safe house, including housing, clothing, food, and transportation. In addition, revenues also support similar expenses, where needed, for four Tabitha Ministry graduates. Come shop for great deals at Tabitha's Furniture Nook and contribute to a worthy cause!

KLOVE to Promote Tabitha Ministry

KLOVE Radio has selected Tabitha Ministry for two weeks of FREE on-air promotion on its local Greensboro station, 94.1 FM. This promotional spot will help Tabitha Ministry get the word out to the community about how it provides a safe Christian home for women struggling to get free from abuse, addiction, or homelessness at no cost to the residents. Keep your radio tuned to KLOVE to hear the promotion!
